ORDER:

There is no necessity of going into all the details. While admitting the writ petition on 04.01.2002, this Court ordered stay of sale of seized stocks and a further direction to the respondents to remove the seized stocks to another suitable place on condition of the petitioner providing required receptacles so as to enable the petitioner to carry on the business, provided the petitioner possesses valid license pending further orders. In view of the interim orders the seized stocks were shifted to another place and the petitioner is permitted to continue the business on the basis of valid license held by him.

2. In view of the above, no further orders are necessary. However, this will not preclude the authorities from conducting any enquiry into the matter in view of the seizure effected under the impugned proceedings.

3. The writ petition is accordingly disposed of. No costs.

C.V.RAMULU, J.

Date: 09th October 2006.
